

I am sending this comment to who it may concern. Do not take the teeth out of the law that is equal to the Indiana State Law. I live in Indiana and I believe we have the right to our privacy at home on the phone lines. If you change it our private home life will not be the same. Thank You.